

Dear Challengers,

Would you like to take up a huge and unique experience with a European listed company while winning incredible opportunities?

Unibail-rodamco and Studyka are glad to announce the new edition of urMall - Business Game, the innovation contest dedicated to exceptional people from all over the world! UrMall - Business Game 2016 gives you the unique opportunity to express yourself on a current and strategic issue for the company:

Re-invent the shopping centres of tomorrow!

If you are bold enough to take up this competition and reach the final, you will have the chance to be hosted for 2 days in Paris, meet members of Unibail-Rodamco's Management Board and work on a strategic project with an international team!

It's really easy to participate! Apply individually or with one other person in English by uploading your resume on the platform (1 resume per participant) before February 18th, 11:59 PM and wait for the results!

Only one question persists... Are you ready to dare?
